

Sam's Abundance of Love Childcare is committed to the children under our care. We will work arduously, daily, to provide you and your child(ren) with a positive experience. Because the parent(s) is the first teacher, it is incumbent upon you, the parent, to reinforce the efforts at home that are modeled here at SAOL, e.g., toilet training, using utensils, experiencing independence in which the child(ren) is not constantly held and coddled throughout the day.

We ask your cooperation and understanding in adhering to the policies set forth in this handbook. Your signature below acknowledges that you have received the parent handbook and will assume the individual and independent responsibility of reading its contents.

We thank you for your support and appreciate your decision to trust us with your most prized treasure(s), your child.
